REGISTRATION FOR THPRD'S SPRING CLASSES STARTS SATURDAY, MARCH 5

Online and phone registration for the Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District's spring programs, classes and activities will be open to in-district residents starting Saturday, March 5, at 8 am.

Patrons registering by computer for the first time must establish an online account in advance at www.thprd.org/activities. Those registering by phone should call 503-439-9400 March 5 through 11 (after March 11, call any park district center).

Class descriptions and schedules, along with registration instructions and forms, are in THPRD's winter/spring activities guide, which is online at www.thprd.org. The book is also available in hard copy at park district centers, the Administration Office, and Beaverton-area libraries.

Registrants should have class information, a valid THPRD residency card, and a credit or debit card handy when they enroll. Those who have questions in advance are encouraged to call 503-645-6433.

District residents who wish to mail or walk-in their registration may do after 8 am on Monday, March 7.

For residents living outside the Tualatin Hills district, online and phone registration will begin Monday, March 7, at 8:30 am; registration in person or by mail begins the following day.

Formed in 1955, THPRD is the largest special park district in Oregon, spanning 50 square miles and serving about 240,000 residents in the greater Beaverton area. The district provides year-round recreational opportunities for people of all ages and abilities. Offerings include thousands of widely diverse classes, 95 park sites with active recreational amenities, nearly 70 miles of trails, eight swim centers, six recreation centers, and about 1,500 acres of natural areas. For more information, visit www.thprd.org or call 503-645-6433.
