THPRD Offering Parents Coverage Options for May 8th – No School Day

May 6, 2019: Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District is announcing expanded child care and drop-in activities to offer parents options for the No School day planned for May 8.

All THPRD before and after-school programs will be open as regularly scheduled. In addition to our regular programs, centers have added additional full-day options, available to youth as space allows. Spaces are available for families who have not previously participated in THPRD after-school programs. In addition, THPRD pools have expanded open swim times to assist families with activity options.
